

Our submission policy

If you are interested in submitting a book proposal to us, please keep in mind that we specialize in photobooks. For a photobook proposal, please send a short outline and a PDF with sample images plus your CV via e-mail. Unfortunately, because of the high volume of submissions that we receive, we cannot give feedback on proposals. We try to reply to every request but it might take some time till you hear back from us. Also be advised that in no event will we be liable for any loss or damage of any material you submit to us, so please don't send any prints or maquettes of great value.
